

Terra Joy McNerthney

34-20 32nd Street • Apt. 3D • Queens, NY 11106 • 347-346-2631 • sincerelyterra@nyu.edu

EDUCATION:

• New York University, Tisch School of the Arts BFA in Film and Television, May 2012

Training:

Able to lift, carry, and set up film production equipment
3-camera television studio work
Single-camera on-location crew work and directing
Production design (as a department head and as an assistant)
Soundstage set construction
Short-form narrative scriptwriting

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Art Department Intern, Maya Sigel, “Gun Hill Road”

New York, NY - 13 July 2010 - 13 August 2010

Moved furniture and set dec to and from locations, cleaned locations, errands as needed

Volunteer, Sar-El

Negev, Israel - 31 May - 18 June 2009

Covered tanks, carried and organized missiles, folded uniforms, cleaned storage rooms

Art Department Intern, Ethan Tobman, Twelve Productions, “Twelve”

New York, NY - 9 April - 27 May 2009

Scouted props, made deliveries, organized storage, errands as needed

Sales Associate, Wal-Mart

Kahului, HI - May 2008-August 2008

Assisted customers in finding products, organized and restocked shelves

SELECTED STUDENT FILM WORK:

Director, NYU, “Prima”

Art Director, Assistant Director, Matt Lincoln/Campus Movie Fest, “The Price of Silence”

- Winner, Best Picture, Regional level. Nominated, Best Picture, International level.

Director and Art Director, NYU, “Afterville”

Art Director, Ashley Hufford/Film Racing Grand Prix, “The Perfect Subject”

Props Mistress, Matt Lincoln, “Kihon Osu”

Production Assistant and other crew work, Various NYU directors

SKILLS:

Sewing experience. Assorted craft skills. Understands Hawaiian Pidgin. PC & Mac literate. Knowledge of PowerPoint, Word, Excel. Strong swimmer. Valid U.S. passport, HI driver's license.

References available upon request.